

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET (“GEM”) OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE “STOCK EXCHANGE”)

The GEM has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on the GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of the GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on the GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on the GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on the GEM is publication on the Internet website operated by the Stock Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issued paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on the GEM-listed issuers.

The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited takes no responsibility for the contents of this document, makes no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss however arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this document.

This document, for which the directors of Systek Information Technology (Holdings) Limited collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited for the purpose of given information with regard to Systek Information Technology (Holdings) Limited. The directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief:— (1) the information contained in this document is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading; (2) there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement in this document misleading; and (3) all opinions expressed in this document have been arrived at after due and careful consideration and are founded on bases and assumptions that are fair and reasonable.

1 Reorganisation and basis of presentation

(a) Reorganisation

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 16 March 2000 as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law (Revised) of the Cayman Islands. The Company became the holding company of the Group on 26 August 2000 through a reorganisation (the “Reorganisation”).

(b) Basis of presentation

The Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) resulting from the Reorganisation has been regarded as a continuing group. Accordingly the consolidated results have been prepared on the basis of merger accounting, under which the Company was the holding company of the Group for both periods presented, rather than from 26 August 2000. Furthermore, the results of the Group for the periods ended 30 September 1999 and 2000 include the results of the Company and its subsidiaries with effect from 1 April 1999 or since their respective dates of incorporation, whichever is a shorter period. In the opinion of the Directors, the resulting consolidated results give a more meaningful view of the results of the Group as a whole.

All significant intra-group transactions and balances have been eliminated in the preparation of the consolidated results.

2 Turnover

An analysis of the turnover by principal activities of the operations of the Group during the reporting periods is as follows:

	Three months ended		Six months ended
	30 September 2000	1999	30 September 2000	1999

The provision for Hong Kong Profits Tax is calculated by applying the estimated annual effective tax rate of 16% (1999: 16%) to the profits for the six months ended 30 September 2000. Taxation for overseas subsidiaries is similarly calculated using the estimated annual effective rates of taxation that would be applicable to the relevant countries.

A subsidiary with research and development operating in PRC, is exempted from PRC income tax for two years commencing from the first profit making year and is entitled to a 50% relief from PRC income tax for the following three years, after which the profits are subject to PRC income tax at the standard rate of 33%. The subsidiary sustained losses during the reporting periods and the two-year tax exemption period has not been commenced.

5 Earnings per share

The companies comprising the Group underwent a reorganisation on 26 August 2000 to rationalise the Group's structure in preparation for the listing of the Company's shares on the GEM.

The calculation of basic earnings per share is based on the consolidated loss/profit attributable to shareholders for the three months and six months ended 30 September 2000 of HK$(2,025,000) and HK$2,121,000 respectively divided by the weighted average number of approximately 666,666,628 shares and 633,333,285 shares in issue during the three months and six months ended 30 September 2000.

The calculation of loss/earnings per share for the three months and six months ended 30 September 1999 is based on the combined loss/profit attributable to shareholders of (HK$760,000) and HK$960,000 for the three months and six months ended 30 September 1999 respectively divided by 599,999,942 shares in issue prior to the placing of 236,375,000 shares on 8 September 2000.

There were no potential dilutive ordinary shares in issue during the periods ended 30 September 1999 and 2000.

The Directors do not recommend the payment of an interim dividend for the six months ended 30 September 2000 (1999: Nil).

BUSINESS REVIEW AND PROSPECT

General

The Group is an Internet technology provider engaged in the design, development and deployment of Internet enabling software solutions and the provision of IT consulting and e-business innovation services. The major customers include commercial enterprises and government entities seeking to deploy and improve their use of the Internet and e-business application.

The mission of the Group is to be a world class leader in e-business enabling software technology.

Financial Performance

For the six months ended 30 September 2000, the Group recorded a turnover of approximately HK$24,194,000 representing an increase of 53.53% over the same period in 1999. Profit attributable to the shareholders for the six month ended 30 September 2000 was approximately HK$2,121,000, representing an increase of 120.94% as compared to a profit of approximately HK$960,000 for the same period in 1999. The revenue from sales of software product represented 28.77% of the Group's turnover for the six month period ended 30 September 2000, compared to 11.78% for the corresponding period in 1999. The strong growth in turnover of the Group was mainly attributable to increased sales of the developed software and related system developments.

During the reporting periods,

- (a) The Group received strong demand for its e-business innovation services as its core clientele in the banking and finance sector were actively seeking new IT solutions in response to new business development. Effort has been made to step up the resources required to accommodate this increase in demand;
- (b) The sales of software especially WinVest were also in great demand. WinVest is designed to interface with the AMS/3 with additional features, such as Interactive voice response ("IVR") and mobile interface, credit check, management report generation and risk management system, to eliminate the processing and settlement inefficiencies of brokers and trading houses. As the stock markets in Asia (excluding Japan) will continue to be active and the brokers are increasingly striving towards trading efficiency, thereby creating ample room for the growth of the WinVest and BIX series.

For the three months ended 30 September 2000, the Group recorded a turnover of approximately HK$10,329,000, representing an increase of 29.71% over the same period in 1999. Gross profit for the three months period ended 30 September 2000 increased 41.12% to HK$5,395,000, representing a gross profit margin of 52.23% as compared with a gross profit margin of 48.01% for the same period in 1999. Owing to our planned expansion, the Group has incurred extra costs in general and administration, staff and research and development costs. Therefore, profit attributable to the shareholders for the three months period ended 30 September 2000 has recorded a net loss of HK$2,025,000. Despite the attributable loss for the three months period, our half year combined results still recorded an encouraging attributable profit of HK$2,121,000, representing an impressive increase of 120.94% over the same period in 1999. The Directors are of the opinion that the extra costs incurred for the three months ended 30 September 2000 will bring about a long term economic benefit to the Group and should be reflected in our expected increase in market share.

Prospect

Existing Business

During the reporting periods, the Group has engaged in several major contracts including the implementation of WinVest, ezConnect, SecurTrac and has performed related consulting services. The Group has increasingly focused its marketing and business development efforts in search of strategic alliances so as to build up its distribution channels. The Group has also entered into strategic alliances with well-known international companies such as Baltimore Technologies Limited, IBM World Trade Corporation, IBM China/Hong Kong Limited, Oracle Systems Hong Kong Limited and Unisys China Limited.

Research and Development

Focusing on e-commerce and Internet related technology, the Group continues to devote its research efforts in Internet collaboration, XML technology, wireless technology, Internet and messaging security, and financial technology.

In addition to the development of new products, the research and development staff are also responsible for the enhancement of the Group's existing products and services. During the reporting periods, the Group had been continuously working on the enhancement of WinVest Release 2.0 and Release 2.2. In addition, the Group developed WinVest C, the Chinese version of WinVest, mainly for distribution in the PRC. Furthermore, there was continuous development of additional modules for ezXML, ezConnect and SecurTrac during the reporting period.

Marketing and Business Development

The Directors consider that participating in international and local information technology conferences and trade shows from time to time is an effective means of promoting the Group's products and services. During the reporting period, the Group participated in various trade shows and conferences hosted by IBM, Lotus and Microsoft.

The PRC's entry into World Trade Organisation ("WTO") will gradually open up opportunities in the market, particularly in the financial and brokerage industry. Foreign financial and brokerage institutions attempting to establish presence in the PRC will create additional sources of demand for software products such as WinVest. When encountering foreign competition, local financial and brokerage institutions in the PRC will require more efficient, comprehensive and sophisticated information technology services and software products. The Group considers that, with its solid track record and visionary strategic planning, it is well positioned to rise to the challenges ahead.
